

Rememo

Kings of Leon

On a plane, on a plane
Off to see the city girls again
Only bringing what to carry on,
So that you know I won't be long
Dripping beard as cold as hell
And the motherfuckers gonna go to jail Honestly I can see
The giggling virgin overlooking me
Trying to put together what to say
Although it wouldn't matter anyway
Dripping beard as cold as hell
And the motherfuckers gonna go to jail This Rememo is set for home
It's personal but they need to know I'm overdue another round,
To gain control and take me down
You're all tied up as you should be
And I'll be cutting out naturally
Dripping beards as cold as jail
And the motherfuckers gonna go to hell
