Switchblade Knife

Pro-Pain

Rise and shine, get out of bedAnd I'm a warmachine againBeat my meat a few times and
It's best to watch your backI am feeling mean my friendMe, myself and I'm comingYou are mine and I'm gunnin'I swear I'll beat you blackI'm gonna get you and leave you for deadAnd I'm gonna beat you with a blow to the headYou'll never forget me for the rest of my life
Cause I am gonna cut you like a switchblade knifeFeed the fire cause I'm waitingMy fist will break your faceFind your house and I'll take it and ransack the placeFear itself is still looking to shut you up for good
It's your life and I'll take itI'd kill you if I couldStrange thoughts are going out of my brainStanding naked with a knife in the rain
Got my fix, now I'm feeling alrightNew York's so pretty at this time of night
