

Too Late

Asia

I say, ?No way?
You've gone and stepped across that fine line
I cried, you lied
I tried maybe a thousand times before
Well, I can't take no more
Too late, you let the sun go down
Too late, you changed direction
Too late for you to turn around
We tried everything
Move on, so long
Two sides to every story
You've told good nights
Bad days, time to go our separate ways
I can't say no more
Too late, you let the sun go down
Too late, you changed direction
Too late for you to turn around
We tried everything
Too late, you let the sun go down

Too late, you changed direction
Too late for you to turn around
We tried everything
Too late, too late, it's too late
Too late, too late, it's too late
Too late, too late, it's too late
Too late, it's too late
Too late, you let the sun go down
Too late, you changed direction
Too late for you to turn around
Too late, you let the sun go down
Too late
Too late, for you to turn around
Too late
Too late
Too late
