

Harvesting Heart

Max Milner

Slowly I provide my lust in harvesting heart
I can't break the eyes but I can break us apartI've strapped you on to my right
Now I can't seem to decideCause I must have left your heart in my home
And I can't seem to sleep on my ownSlowly I provide my lust in harvesting heart
I can't break the eyes but I can break us apartI'm overcrowded by blithe
I never promised that I could read mindsCause I must have left your heart in my home
I can't seem to sleep on my ownSlowly I provide my lust in harvesting heart
I can't break the eyes but I can break us apartBelieve me, after polarizing myself
That I've lied to you
Believe me, after polarizing my time
That I've lied to you
Believe me, after polarizing myself
That I've lied to you
Believe me, after polarizing myself
That I've lied to youSlowly I provide my lust in harvesting heart
I can't break the eyes but I can break us apart
