

Secret Oktober (2010 Remaster)

Duran Duran

Wise on a birthday party, in a world
Full of surprising fireworks and sudden silence
(Shh)
Lies on a stranger's bed the new day breaks, like a speeding train
Or an old friend ever expected, but never knocking
Holding your own in a battered car
All night parties cocktail bars
And smile when the butterfly escapes the killing jar
Sure eyes awake before the dancing is over
Wise or naked in secret Oktober
Freefall on a windy morning shore
Nothing but a fading track of footsteps
Could prove that you'd ever been there
Spoken on a cotton cloud like the sound of gunshot
Taken by the wind, and lost in distant thunder
Racing on a shining plane
Tomorrow you'll be content to watch as the lightning plays
Along the wires, and you'll wonder
Sure eyes awake before the dancing is over
Wise or naked in secret Oktober
Sure eyes awake before the dancing is over
Wise or naked in secret Oktober

Songwriters

Roger Andrew Taylor; Simon John Le Bon; John Nigel Taylor; Nicholas James Bates; Andy Taylor
Published by
BIOT MUSIC LIMITED

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>