Beyond Love

Slaid Cleaves

She sleeps softly beside
And in secrets we abide
Long gone is the sharp pain
Of young love's foolish game
Days fade into night shades beyond love
Sometimes I'm afraid she
Puts too much faith in me
God knows I try but I'm
Bound to fall down sometime
Perfume faint as empty whiskey
Glasses sweet and soft
Dusty bed side table lamp
Throws light on something lost
Days fade into night shades beyond love
Outside a cold hand waits
From the gloaming to the dawn
As love sleeps safe in memory
And you hold on, hold on
Perfume faint as empty whiskey
Glasses sweet and soft
Dusty bed side table lamp
Throws light what we've lost
Love fades into night shades beyond love
Days fade into night shades beyond love
Beyond love
