

Before Destruction

Spoon

Before destruction
A man's heart is haughtyBefore destruction
A man's
Heart is haughtyEveryone loves you for your black eye
They feast on the abundance of your house
Your loveI want to believe
For once to believe nowJust as you're leaving
You turn around and take a cold shot
Just as you're turning your back . . .Ah, love
Your love
