

Better Man

DecembeRadio

I throw away my regrets
I'm forgiven but I can't forget
Every day I fall behind but I take up my cross
Nobody's changing my mindCause I'm no hero and I wear no halo
But I do the best, best I can
I'm out on a wire, stepping straight through the fire
And it makes me who I am, I'm a better man, oh, ohI've come this far, turned the page
I don't ever have to be afraid
The only way I will survive is to take up my cross
Nobody's changing my mindCause I'm no hero and I wear no halo
But I do the best, best I can
I'm out on a wire, stepping straight through the fire
And it makes me who I am, I'm a better manWhoa, I'm a better man
Whoa, I'm a better manYour love is on my side
Its on my side
Your love its on my side
Nobody's changing my mindCause I'm no hero and I wear no halo
But I do the best, best I can
I'm out on a wire, stepping straight through the fire
And it makes me who I am, I'm a better man
Better man, better man, better man
