

Holding Out For Love

Daryl Hall

Why, why does that restless
Part of me always see?
Did I know love would show?
And I'd find the passion I need
Look up ahead
And all I see are worlds apart, broken hearts
Looking for something more
Some magic that they might feel
That's why I hold on, I'm holding out for love
There's only one I'm dreaming of
That's why I hold on, I'm holding out for love
Will that one heart wait for me?
You know we take those twists and turns
Never learn, going on
Takes so long to find
All the passion we need
Look what we have
Don't wanna be two worlds apart
Loving hearts stay alive, strong survive
Just matters what we both feel
That's why I hold on, I'm holding out for love
There's only one I'm dreaming of
That's why I hold on, I'm holding out for love
But will that one heart wait for me?
I watch the time go by
Oh, I swear now baby I
I have never been so sure in my heart
So close to my dreams
I hold on, I'm holding out for love
There's only one I'm dreaming of
That's why I hold on, I'm holding out for love
One lonely heart waiting
I hold on, I'm holding out for love
There's only one I'm dreaming of
I hold on, holding out for love
One lonely heart waiting
I hold on, oh, oh, oh
I'm holding, holding on, holding on, oh
