Quest of Many Trails

Plus One

If your tears want out then let them fall
They'll hit your cheek and then dissolve
You see nothing heals quite like time
It fills the gap between dreams and real life
So you give your pain a chance to run itself dry
Ahhhh....
Remeber the story without all the hurt
Hold on to the fruit and wash off the dirt
You see life is bitter sweet
And sweets the best part
You never rate your happy
Without sad on the chart[Chorus]
Stars colliding against the dark
Of the night
You'll climb over the moon tonight
On your quest of many trailsRemember, will you remember
Who brought you here
Remember, will you remember your home
Remember, will you remember[Chorus]
Stars colliding against the dark
Of the night
You'll climb over the moon tonight
On your quest of many trails
