

Waiting for You

Athenaeum

I wanna hear the words
That you never speak
I wanna close my eyes
And wake to your lips upon my cheek I wanna know
Would you just walk away?
I've suffered enough this time
And these things will never go our way Hold on tight
'Cause I don't wanna say goodbye
Any more than you do
And all I see is you just wanna make believe
And I don't have the words up my sleeve
I'm waiting for you
I wanna change
But these dreams will never die
I wanna hear you say
That nothing is stronger than you and I wanna know
Would you just walk away?
We've suffered enough this time
And these things will never go our way Hold on tight
'Cause I don't wanna say goodbye
Any more than you do
And all I see is you just wanna make believe
And I don't have the words up my sleeve
I'm waiting for you Waiting for you
Hold on tight
'Cause I don't wanna say goodbye
Any more than you do
And all I see is you just wanna make believe
And I don't have the words up my sleeve
I'm waiting for you Waiting for you
