

Give Me a Reason to Stay

Jim Wolfe

You know the reason's I have to go
I can't keep coming to you
You got another waiting for you
Don't make this so hard to do
Love you forever what good does it do
Said it was over again
Every time they just get in the way
Make me want what might have been
I'm leaving now so don't try to hold me
Want to believe the lies that you told me
You know the reason's I'm going away just give me a reason to stay
You say that you don't love her anymore
I'm pretty sure that you do
I see the faraway look in your eyes you know she's been waiting for you
All I can do is walk out that door try to forget what we had
We had so many, many good times
I'll try to remember the bad
I'm leaving now so don't try to hold me
Want to believe the lies that you told me
You know the reason's I'm going away just give me a reason to stay
You know the reason's I'm going away just give me a reason to stay
