New Day

Griffin House

A new, new day will come
When the children will run and laugh with the son
And you, you will be mine, in awhileAnd honey that's all I need, honey that's all I need
Let me go now, if I shall be released
I've been here before, I've been deceasedThat redemption may come like a wave over me
Run me still to the shore, pull me out of the sea
I will walk through my garden of rosesThat fade and I wait for the day that is done
And I will do, I will do, whatever it takes To believe a new day will comeI've been down
I've been broken by shame
I've been carving too shallow
A meaning out of my nameThat redemption may come like a wave over me
Run me still to the shore, pull me out of the sea
I will walk through my garden of roses that fadeAnd I'll wait for the day that is done
I will do, I will do whatever it takes To believe a new day will comeOh where do we go to hide?
Oh where are we gonna hide?
Oh where are we gonna hide?If I call out your name will you answer me
Now like you always have said that you would?
I will do, I will do, whatever it takes to believe
A new day will come.
Oh, I'm making a new life for myself
Oh, I'm making a new life for myself
Oh, I'm making a new life for myself
Oh, I'm making a new life for myselfGet me into the higher love
Where are we gonna hide love?
Get me in, get me in to the higher love
New day, new day, new day, new day

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/