Runnin'

Ledisi

I confess, I'm a mess, and I'm trying to catch up to life.
The clock keeps tickin' away, and I'm losing myself everyday all in the name of life
(Ain't nobody hearing me, can't nobody feel me, I just wanna be all by myself)
Ain't nowhere to run to, but I keep runnin (runnin (x2). I keep running

(Hands down, I wanna give up, why do you suffer? cause nothing that I do is right)
What happened to the light in the day when the sun felt good making me wanna win in the game of life?
(I know I got love in me, but just want to trust in me, just wanna be by myself)
Just wanna be all by myself, gotta catch up, I keep runnin'
