I Will Not Say Goodbye

Danny Gokey

Sometimes the road just ends
Changes everything you've been
And all that's left to be
Is empty, broken, lonely, hopin'I'm supposed to be strong
I'm supposed to find a way to carry onI don't want to feel better
I don't want to not remember
I will always see your face in the shadows of this haunted place
I will laugh, I will cry, shake my fist at the sky, but I will not say goodbyeThey keep saying time will heal
But the pain just gets more real
The sun comes up each day
Finds me waiting, fading, hating, prayingIf I can keep on holding on Maybe I can keep my heart from knowing that you're goneI don't want to feel better
I don't want to not remember
I will always see your face in the shadows of this haunted place
I will laugh, I will cry, shake my fist at the sky, but I will not say goodbyeI will curse, I will pray, I'll relive every day, I will shoulder the blame
I will shout out your name
I will laugh, I will cry, shake my fist at the sky, but I will not say
Will not say goodbye
(Goodbye)Will not say goodbye
(Goodbye)
Will not say
