

My Soul's Affliction

Anacrusis

Crashing in down around my ears
Brow beaten self for all these years
Enabling this suitable wall
I've been afraid of nothing at all My soul's affliction will now amend
This ageless blight has come to an end This silence deafening
Kept inside rages
This silence deafening
Kept inside Negotiate with my emotions
An inner wealth in such devotion
This genuine warmth has filled my heart
Mending again what was torn apart This silence deafening
Kept inside rages
This silence deafening
Kept inside This silence deafening
Kept inside rages
This silence deafening
Kept inside rages, rages
