

Big Star

Oliver Onions

I saw a big star running from me
A world from a record on my bed
 Turn the tables on me
 What would happen if I fell?
 To the tune of a dreamer
 To the tune of my heart
 A big star running from me
I saw a world out sunnin' on my head
 Turn the tables on me now
I would fall from heaven and ring your bell
 Baby catch me
 In the middle of a lie
 The boys are out tonight
 Yeah, the boys are out tonight
 The big shots singin' from me
I saw a world out sunnin' on my head
 Pity my heart signals

Center of a storm inside my head
Center of my, center of my heart
Center of my, out of time, simple mind
 From the moon out my window
 Wink and a blink and a nod
 Had a wish on a start but now it's Now it's falling, now it's falling, falling
 The boys are out tonight
 Yeah, the boys are out tonight
 Big skies above me
 Signal my horoscope, it said
 Never heed a caution, never fight a lover
 Never cross a street alone in the middle
The middle of a signal red, middle of a drinker's heart
 Middle of a big parade, a signal in my horoscope
