

Hearts Upon Our Sleeve (feat. Scott Mills)

5 Seconds of Summer

Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh x3 We wear our hearts upon our sleeve There's a part of my heart that you'll never change
There's a dream so alive, it's an endless flame
And you can't keep us down, 'cause we'll always come back again (always come back again) For the highs and the lows, for the rise and falls
And the times that you thought you'd given your all
For a night and a dream and those moments you'll never get back again (never get back again) 'Cause the world is at our feet We've been through a thousand heartbreaks
But you know we still believe
We wear the same shirts as our fathers
And our hearts upon our sleeve And don't stop us now we've started
'Cause there's no-one we can't beat
We wear the same shirts as our fathers
And our hearts upon our sleeve Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh x3 We wear our hearts upon our sleeve Hear the crowd in the stands and out in the streets
Every fan, everywhere, on the edge of their seats
It's a beautiful day for a beautiful game (beautiful game) See the players run out and the anthems ring
And you're singing so hard you can't hear a thing
But the beat of your heart as it's beating you up again (beating you up again) 'Cause the world is at our feet We've been through a thousand heartbreaks
But you know we still believe
We wear the same shirts as our fathers
And our hearts upon our sleeve And don't stop us now we've started
'Cause there's no-one we can't beat
We wear the same shirts as our fathers
And our hearts upon our sleeve Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh x3 We wear our hearts upon our sleeve [Scott Mills]
5 Seconds Of Summer
'Till the end of the game
The joy, the heartache, the tension, the pain
The striker shoots, there's a roar from the crowd
They think it's all over, it is now parara
parara
parara It's our generic football anthem to be sung around the world
And we hope it doesn't sound like any others that you've heard parara
parara
parara Don't stop us now we've started
'Cause there's no-one we can't beat
We wear the same shirts as our fathers

And our hearts upon our sleeveWe wear our hearts upon our sleeve
