

Lions

Samantha Crain

Bring all paralyzed things to my side
Let me see, let me see
Their bodies collide
Underneath, underneath the lightPray for wooden floors
We will all have bad dreams
Underneath, underneath the drippy sink
After all the ringing is gone to bedAnd I swear
All the eye saw the white
Is haunting me
I'm always waking up screaming
Where have you left me this timeAnd there on the table
Are all the stories you had told
Tracing lines
Of goldI couldn't see
When you told me go away
I don't want you around
After todayRed mark
Right there
Over the doorway
Passover bring us some privacy
Take anything you wantAnd eyes a lion's came
To rob us of our prey
We cry
Cause we lost more timeAnd we stood up with fight
And we broke down the door
We promised we would not
Be afraid any moreOh oh
Gonna get you through this
Gonna get, gonna get you through this ohOh oh
Gonna get you through this
Gonna get, gonna get you through this ohOh oh
Gonna get, gonna get you through this oh
