

Rock

Orianthi

It takes you over
Like you're standing in a hurricane
You can't escape it
I run away from the pain
I've always been a shoulder
There to help you through
Turn the light out
Tell me what the hell I'm supposed to do
Every moment that I think I'm through
I'm back to where, where I found you Cause I don't wanna be your rock this time
I can take away the pain from the world inside
Cause you know, you know, you know, you know
You're trying to see what the world is like
I can save you from yourself again tonight
Cause you know, you know, you know, you know
I can be your rock, I can be your rock, no
I can be your rock, I can be your rock tonight I tried to hold you
Put you back together but I can't mend
The broken pieces that you keep on breaking over again
You see the lonely faces
Walking around this town
You think you're the only one
Who's ever been this down
Every moment that I think I'm through
I'm back to where, where I found you Cause I don't wanna be your rock this time
I can take away the pain from the world inside
Cause you know, you know, you know, you know
You're trying to see what the world is like
I can save you from yourself again tonight
Cause you know, you know, you know, you know
I can be your rock, I can be your rock, no
I can be your rock, I can be your rock tonight Every moment that I think I'm through
I'm back to where, where I found you I can be your rock, I can be your rock, no
I can be your rock, I can be your rock, no
I can be your rock, I can be your rock Cause you know, you know, you know, you know
You're trying to see what the world is like
I can save you from yourself again tonight
Cause you know, you know, you know, you know
Cause I don't wanna be your rock this time

I can take away the pain from the world inside
Cause you know, you know, you know, you know
You're trying to see what the world is like
I can save you from yourself again this time
Cause you know, you know, you know, you know
