

Pathetic

Lamb of God

Somewhere between an excuse and a lie
You found something that you believe
So proud, I guess I can't imagine why Three cheers for what we used to be
Pathetic, wasted, soulless, compromised
Sleep-walking in the mine field
 talking, it crumbles around you
It comes back around
Somewhere between delusion and denial
You'll drown in your own sympathy
Profound, at least you thought so at the time
A ghost of who you used to be
Pathetic, wasted, soulless, compromised
Pathetic, wasted, soulless, compromised
Sleep-walking in the mine field
 talking, it crumbles around you
It comes back around
It comes back around
Sleep-walking in the mine field
 talking, it crumbles around you
It comes back around
Pathetic, wasted, soulless, compromised
Pathetic, wasted, soulless, compromised
Pathetic, wasted, soulless, compromised
Pathetic, wasted, soulless, compromised
Pathetic, wasted, soulless, compromised
Pathetic, wasted, soulless, compromised
