No Mercy

Agnostic Front

Hypocrite we had a deal
Nothing ever fucking real
Never trust the outsider
It's proven once againYou can say, what you wanna say
No forgiveness, no mercy
Or you can just go straight to hell
No forgiveness no mercyIt was nothing but a big charade tired of Playing these fucking games
Can't wait to see your tombstone slate may
Have been fooled but never playedFuck you, I don't need you
Turns out, I'm better off anyway
Tomorrow is another day
I don't need no sympathy from someone living in a fantasy
