

Sinners Bleed

Entombed

My skin is dripping from blood
For that moment, I sighed in relief
But I wasn't just gonna be dying
I thought I'll bleed like sinners bleed Paralyzed by the fear
For something I could not believe
A paradise to some
But hell with suckers like me Unspeakable sights I behold
They're freezing and teasing my mind
Terrorized by the essence from beyond
The dimensions of another kind Moving lights
Passes nihilism in which I fell
Descent in fright
When I was slowly sent down to hell Scarlet black all I see
The void caught up with my eyes
The horrid wait suffers me
Please set me free, I just wanna die Palace of confusion
Castle of pain
Beneath these walls of power
I'm lost in Hell's domain I'm scattered in my own blood
I'm losing all my beliefs
But I wasn't just gonna be dying
'Cause I am bleeding like sinners bleed
