

Between Two Points

The Glitch Mob

We've got forever
Slipping through our hands
We've got more time
To never understand Falling footsteps
Weighing heavy on me Behind darkness
Beneath candles
Whispers waltz
Around our dreams The shortest distance
Between two points
Is a line
From me to you The shortest distance
Between two points
Is a line
From me to you Feet turning black
Is this the path we must walk?
No turning back
Wish I could just hear you talk Can something like this be pulled
From under our feet?
Leaving our skin And burning coals to meet Tell me now The shortest distance
Between two points
Is a line
From me to you The shortest distance
Between two points
Is a line
From me to you
