

MIND DRIPS (Jesse Woods)

Neon Indian

 not taken from official lyrics, some could be incorrectBlacktop letters written all in chalk,

So that she might see me,

When school is over,

Dripping thoughts all onto your sidewalk,

I couldn't tell you,

When I was soberCryptic message written in the dark,

How it haunts me,

As she laid closer,

Locking hands floating through the park,

They'd always watch me,

Losing composure
