

Untouchable

Garbage

This is nothing new to me
It takes more than what you've got to frighten me
I'm not scared of you
There's nothing you can do or take from me
Untouchable
You think you're untouchable
You know
That no one's untouchable
You're bound to lose the game
There's no one else to blame
You play so safe and you're not riskin' enough
You are doomed to be undone
I swear I'll be the one to bring you down
It's all your fault 'cause you got caught
Untouchable
You think you're untouchable
You know
That no one's untouchable
It must be nice to be so sure
And never feel insecure
It must feel good to believe
You're always right and you're never wrong
You've got something to say
You'd say it to my face and be a man about it
You've got a problem with me
Don't go behind my back just like a baby
Untouchable
(Pride comes before)
You think you're untouchable
(You take a fall)
You know
(You'd best beware)
No one's untouchable
(A woman scorned)
Untouchable
(Pride comes before)
You think you're untouchable
(You take a fall)
You know

(You'd best beware)
No one's untouchable
(A woman scorned)
No one's untouchable
You think you're untouchable
You know
No one's untouchable
No one's untouchable
No one's untouchable
No one's untouchable
No one's untouchable
