

Wild Hope

Mandy Moore

In a crazy world
Anything can happen if you will it to
I'm just a hazy girl
Blurring all the edges, only seeing blueIt's a wild hope
A wild hope
A wild hope
Everything will be alrightLost inside
A painting of a city on a hotel wall
Days goes by
Wasting golden hours in the fallIt's a wild hope
A wild hope
A wild hope
Everything will be alrightI catch a glimpse of our reflection
Besides you, I see myself
We are the season's new collection
We look like everybody elseWalk alone
Through the crowded streets into the fading gray
Here and gone
Like a decoration for the holidayIt's a wild hope
A wild hope
A wild hope
Everything will be alrightEverything will be alright
Everything will be alright
