Waitin' On the Wonderful

Aaron Lines

It's way too easy to live this life
With your eyes half closed and don't I know
I spend half my time bored out of my mind sleepwalking
Well I wake up to this fools parade and I watch the leaves fall down
I see everything changin' but somehow I feel caged in Just hanging aroundI'm waitin' on the wonderful something to set me free
Out of the ordinary come and rescue me
Yeah I could use a little love, love, love to send me a sign
I'm tired of the typical, I'm waitin' on the wonderfulIt's that feeling that's hard to explain
When the world's so big and your so small
And you get caught up in the wonder of it all, that's what I miss
I saw that look today on a young kids face
Eating ice cream at the Laudrymat
Well if you'd asked him it was Christmas again I wanna get that backI'm waitin' on the wonderful little something to believe
Out of the ordinary taste of something sweet
Yeah I could use a little love, love, love to send me a sign
I'm tired of the typical, I'm waitin' on the wonderfulYeah,yeah I'm waitin' the the wonderful
I know its out thereI'm wait on on the wonderful a little something to believe
Out of the ordinary come and rescue me
I can use a little love, love, love to send me a sign
I'm tired of the typical, yeah I'm waitin' on the wonderful, something mystical
I'm waitin' on the wonderful
I'm waitin' on the wonderful something to set me free
