Teenage Dream

T. Rex

what ever happened to the teenage dream?
surprise, surprise
the boys are home
my gaurdian angel
run down my telephone
the heats on, mister
can't you hear them scream,
what ever happened to the teenage dream?
the curfew comesat the crack of night
the sad old wino
aches to dissapate the fright
the jet jump jiver speeds past his machine, but
what ever happened to the teenage dream?
a broken god
from a musky world
sweetly mouth touched
him on its spur
his prison guards
were very hard to clean, but
what ever happened to the teenage dream?
do it, do it, do it to me babe do it to me babe, aha!

the wizard of oz,
and the bums and theives
ruled my girl
with tuetonic teeth
but all was lost
when her mouth turned green
what ever happened to the teenage dream?
silver surfer
and the ragged kid
are all sad and rusted ah, they don't have a gift believe me Pope Paul,my toes are clean
what ever happened to the teenage dream?
black is black

and white is white
some go to heaven
and some get it night
the bomb was a brute
but his winged screams.....
yea ... aaaaaaaah
(song ends, turns to justpiano and Marc on guitar)
.....I'm talking teen agey woman, I'm talking to you
(editor note: to band)
"play them blues to me boy"
"ride it off"
