Rings from Corona

Poison the Well

With everything I've dragged in
Venomous beings and allIt's nice to think that everything falls into place
But it doesn't, but it doesn't fall intoWith everything I've dragged in Venomous beings and allSo guilty, so weak
So lost without you
For now I know
So guilty, so weakStop calling me, stop calling me
Please keep calling me
Please keep calling meOpen your mouth to see if it's the truth
Turn around so you can't see me say I miss youStop calling, keep calling
Stop fucking calling me
