

Breadline

Megadeth

Ain't got no job
Ain't got no smoke
Ain't got a car
His life's a joke Living on the skids
Thinks the world's just fine
Forgot what he did
Dancing on the breadline No one there to bind him
Nothing to remind him
Nowhere left to find him
About to lose his lifeline
He's dancing on the breadline Forgot who he is Forgot who he was
Used to call the shots
Now, he can't connect the dots A mover and a shaker
Getting closer to his maker
Lower than a hemline
Dancing on the breadline No one there to bind him
Nothing to remind him
Nowhere left to find him, nowhere About to lose his lifeline
He's looking for a headline
Sniffing up the white lines He's dancing on the breadline
He's dancing on the breadline
Watch him dance About to lose his lifeline
He's looking for a headline
Sniffing up the white lines He's dancing on the breadline
The breadline
Nowhere, nothing, nowhere The breadline
Dancing on the breadline
Dancing on the breadline
He forgot and he ain't got nothing
