

Loved You First

O'G3NE

I read about it, how you changed your name
You've always wanted that special day
You probably see the world
And when the time is right you make another you
I hope he has your smile And I know we had our flaws, stitched together with good intentions
I can deal with being alone
I let go, 'cause I know I should
'Cause I know that you'll be happy
And I know you're loving someone but me
I can take it, but the one thing that's really hurting the worst
I'm the one the loved you first (ooh ooh e-yeah)
I'm the one the loved you first (aaaah) Don't get it twisted
Boy, I'm not upset
You found another love
I'm happy that we gave her that
They say for happiness you gotta take that risk
You did the right thing, boy
To not settle for this
And I know we had our flaws, stitched together with good intentions
I can deal with being alone
I let go, 'cause I know I should
'Cause I know that you'll be happy
And I know you're loving someone but me
I can take it, but the one thing that's really hurting the worst
I'm the one the loved you first (ooh ooh e-yeah)
I'm the one the loved you first (ooh ooh e-yeah)
I'm the one the loved you first (ooh ooh e-yeah) I can take it, but the one thing that's really hurting the worst
I'm the one the loved you first (aaaah) Do you remember when we said we're in this what ever?
Do you remember our first fight, first cry together?
Do you remember when we first lied, first said 'forever'?
Now when I close my eyes
I remember the time
When I thought that you were happy
And I thought that there'll be no one but me I can take it, but the one thing that's really hurting the worst
I'm the one the loved you first (ooh ooh e-yeah)
I'm the one the loved you first (oooooooooh)
I'm the one the loved you first (ooeeeh) I can take it, but the one thing that's really hurting the worst
I'm the one the loved you first
I'm the one the loved you first

I'm the one the loved you first
