Hands

Chloe Day

My baby's hands
are so inviting
My baby's hands
they leave me wanting more My baby's hands are too exciting for me

My baby's lips
are so enticing
My baby's eyes
they thrill me to the core My baby's hands will never let me be

But he lives
Oh he lives the good life
Paid his penance
earned his fame
And he fights
Oh he fights a good fight
first one to defend my name
So he lies Oh he lies such sweet lies Never second guess his claims 'Cause you don't know what he does or where he takes me where he takes me

My baby's hands
are so inviting
My baby's hands
they keep me back for more My baby's hands are
too exciting for me

My baby's lips
are so enticing
My baby's eyes
they thrill me to the core
My baby's hands will

never let me be
