

Little Lamb

Neon Horse

Strapped in, biting bullets as your last meal
Ol' Sparky for the deeds that you've done
You came thru like a call from the governor
Undercover girl, casting lovely pearls.
With hook and line, she caught that eye
Don't question why, spider eats stupid fly.
Buzz Buzz bliss under silky killing kisses
Blackstrap molasses down the hatch to forget

(chorus)

oooh, pretty kitty caught your tongue
(aw, watch his tongue)

Its about to be a lion, a viper, a saber-tooth tiger,
Oh no, before you know it, you got swallowed down

Put a number on the price of your penitence

Your dirty dollars and a silver tooth

Ain't enough to get you back in the saddle

Try a gallows and a handful of screws

With hook and line, shovel and lime

Surprise, surprise, spider eats stupid fly

Naked desperation, you're giving and she's taking,
The butcher to the baker, she's the lovely widow maker

(chorus)

ooooh ooh

A lion, a viper, a saber-tooth tiger oh no

ooooh, little lamb lost your way

Well, crawl across your grave

You forgot your place, and everyone can see the look on your face (bottoms up)

(chorus)

Oooh, little lamb lost your way
Well crawl across your grave

Yeah you forgot your place and everyone can see the look on your face
