

Memories of Lu

Pollock

When I get cold
Desert fades
Need to feel her close
Seeking refuge
She's my home from home
Never realized
Till she let me go
When I see ghosts I hold her
In a such an ugly world
Keeps me grounded
Dumb 'cos you don't know
How to count the miles
Till the grand canyon
Uh That is not your fault and it never was
Uh Uh Just keep your chin-up never mind
When I see ghosts I hold her
Need to feel her close
Seeking refuge
Dumb 'cos you don't know
How to count the miles
Till the grand canyon
Threw yourself in sand
Hard rain is gonna fall yeah
Uh That is not your fault and it never was
Uh Uh Just keep your chin-up never mind
Uh A mountain to divide
Uh sometimes
The wind blows by her side
The world escapes
Impossible to grasp
Just dance and come this way
The world escapes
Impossible to grasp
Just dance and come this way
Never was uh uh
Just keep your chin-up never mind
Uh A mountain to divide
Uh sometimes
The wind blows by her side
