

Wish You Were Here

Hey Monday

(Ohhh Ohhh)

Hereâ€™s my heart in a postcard darling,
Just one step from the edge.
Sleep alone and itâ€™s so hard darlin,
And next to me and my head.

But itâ€™s too late, too late, to call. Are you out there?
Too late, too much to say.

Wish you here, wish you well.
If you only share this hell.
But you leave, and the stains are left on me,
i wish you, i wish you were here
I wish you, I wish you were here.

(Ohhh Ohhh)

Hereâ€™s my Hollywood ending callinâ€™,
Everyday faced black.
Sick and tired of pretending darling,
That youâ€™ll ever come back.

But itâ€™s too late, too late, to call. Are you out there?
Too late, too much to say.

Wish you here, wish you well.
If you only share this hell.
But you leave, and the stains are left on me,
I wish you, I wish you were here
I wish you, I wish you were here.

Tell me, something,
Talk me down, down again.
Iâ€™m broken, Iâ€™m frozen up

Wish you here, Wish you well.
If you only share this hell.
But you leave, and the stains are left on me,

Wish you here, Wish you well.
If you only share this hell.

But you leave, and the stains are left on me,
I wish you, I wish you were here
I wish you, I wish you were here.

(Ohhh ohh ohh)
