Land of Light

Freedom Call

I'm diving through an empty space
Where shadows flashing around
An angels voice, so close so far
I'm reaching holy groundA broken heart, beats deep inside
A silent lake of tearsAnd I cry, you can see the tears
In my eyes, like the pouring rain
Where the hand on my heart
I am leaving the nightTo the land of the light
The garden of life
Remember the golden times
The land of the lightAn ancient time, forgotten land
I've never seen before
Unholy spell, a land of ice
An everlasting warAnd I fly to the far horizon
So highTo the land of the light
The garden of life
Remember the golden timesAnd I cry, you can see the tears
In my eyes, like the pouring rain
Where the hand on my heart
I am leaving the nightTo the land of the light
To the land of the light
Remember the golden times
The garden of lifeThe land of the light
Remember the golden times
The land of the light, the light
For the moment, standing aloneThe land of the light
The land of the light
