

Bad Dream Hotline

Foe

Waking in sweats
I pick up my phone
Call a number that I make up on the spot
Your voice is so small
Your voice is so cold
But as long as there is someone for my ears to hold

Deep in the sheets
We travel through darkness
There's monsters in hats singing carcasses
You told me don't scream or you'll ruin the speakers
As long as I am here to keep you out of the bleakness
Out of the bleakness
Cause that is your weakness
I'll get you out of it

Waking in sweats
I feel my head spin
Things are dancing in the dark around my bed again
You told me don't scream while you hold me in pieces
As long as you are here to keep me out of the bleakness
Out of the bleakness
Cause that is my weakness
You keep me out of it

Waking in sweats
I pick up my phone
Dial a number that I know is gonna calm me down
Your voice is so warm
Your voice is so hot
You are next to me
