

Kick Down

Long Beach Dub Allstars

Kick me down is all I hear now adays
Break me off you can say it in a thousand ways
Give me this, give me that as if you feed on greed
 Lyin' to kick it just to smoke up all my weed
 Drinkin my brew and gettin drunker than me
 Tell me what is it that you wantin from me
Aint nothin free I had to work to get whats comin to me
Open your eyes and realize that this is somethin' to see
 Kick down is what they talk 'bout today
 Your in my arena but you dont wanna play
 Its how you move and not what you say
 When the cats away the mice will play
 Cause im remembering the days when I didnt have nothin
 Livin in the ghetto east side ill tell you something
 From the life ive lived and what ive seen
 Nothing from nothing means nothing
 So you better have somethin
 If you wanna kick down from me
 So lets move to the side and make this discrete
 Take a look at my numbers to see if they meet
 Up with your stylin to fill up your streets
 I dont who you are but I guess you know me
Stop thinking you can come up so easily
 Kick me down is all I hear now adays
 Break me off you can say it in a thousand ways
 Give me this, give me that as if you feed on greed
 Lyin' to kick it just to smoke up all my weed
 Drinkin my brew and gettin drunker than me
 Tell me what is it that you wantin from me
Aint nothin free I had to work to get whats comin to me
Open your eyes and realize that this is somethin' to see
 What is it that you beggin me for
 Ive got it all but now you cant have it
 Ive learned from what ive earned
 And established my status as a job to manage
 And to my advantage I will stand ground
 Shake your hand like the realest man around
 And your town kickin you down for a minute
 But everything your life have consequences
 Begining only to end it
 As if it was intended
 But you still have to take to the streets and represent it

For each one to step off a street and represent it
So you can sleep for each consecutive second

Thats independent from each hour

I speak as if I was the only source of power

Keeper of keeper thought with knowledge in my conscious tower

I read the fate like characters in fictitious novels

And yet between the lines more follow

A most hollow way of life to model

For our street investin stress in a bottle

Nah your better off wishin a lottoKick me down is all I hear now adays

Break me off you can say it in a thousand ways

Give me this, give me that as if you feed on greed

Lyin' to kick it just to smoke up all my weed

Drinkin my brew and gettin drunker than me

Tell me what is it that you wantin from me

Aint nothin free I had to work to get whats comin to me

Open your eyes and realize that this is somethin' to seeHa Ha, whats up Op aint seen you in a while chile

Hey man you fuckin livin large huh. comin up huh you like it

Servin the purpose and shit. Gold card and everything

Right Right. Kick me down. Huh, im gonna tell you like this broKick me down is all im hearing from you

Come on man break me off save me some

As if theres some for you

I need this, give me that

As if you need some help feed your self

Yous the only one that needs yourself

I need a drink to get me drunker than the fourty thieves

Tell me why is it that you frontin on my fortian please

Speak your piece or forever hold your own

I need a loan, I need a car to get home

Naw dawg you better off fetchin for your own bone to throw

Come on im in the streets im all alone

But if you seek than you shall find your shine aint gone

So can I get a kick down

Naw you wrongKick me down is all I hear now adays

Break me off you can say it in a thousand ways

Give me this, give me that as if you feed on greed

Lyin' to kick it just to smoke up all my weed

Drinkin my brew and gettin drunker than me

Tell me what is it that you wantin from me

Aint nothin free I had to work to get whats comin to me

Open your eyes and realize that this is somethin' to see
