

Bury

Unions

Bury

UnionsDown in the deep

Where the sirens sing

And hide in the muddy waterBlood on my hands

And the moonlit sand

But I'd die just to keep them underOoo, ooo gonna bury meBroke in the night

In the colorless light

And the cold of an empty bottleDrunk on a song

Of a lie gone wrong

You only find when you hit the bottomOoo, ooo gonna bury me

Ooo, ooo gonna bury meA woman can't run

From the things she's done

When the weight's got her on her kneesTime don't know where the river flows

But I pray it's out to seaOoo, ooo gonna bury me

Ooo, ooo gonna bury meKeep them going down now

Let them drown

Keep them going down now

Let them drown

Keep them going down now

Let them drownKeep them going down now

Let them drown

Keep them going down now

Let them drown

Keep them going down now

Let them drown

Bury them down

Bury them downKeep them going down now

Let them drown

Keep them going down now

Let them drown

Keep them going down now

Let them drown

Bury them down

Bury them downKeep them going down now

Let them drown

Keep them going down now

Let them drown

Keep them going down now

Let them drown

Bury them down

Bury them down
