

Fairweather Friends

Queens of the Stone Age

Is there anyone out there?
Or am i walking alone?
When i turned around &
Found that you'd gone before the first rain could fall
It seems every single time i was bleeding
Broken promises that never came true
It ain't so long before the dawn
When the sun is gone so are you
So what's it gonna take to get you back in bed?
Gossips, Frauds & Snakes
They're just our best fair weather friends
One day when we're far away from everything that hurts
Drink wine & screw is all that we'll do everyday
So what's it gonna take to get you back in bed?
Gossips, Frauds & Snakes
They're just our best fair weather friends
Don't you know the hour's late
Don't let 'em in your head
I'm gonna pray for the rain again & again
Fairweather friends
Goodbye blue sky
fair weather frie....(spoken)
...I don't give a sh*t about them anyway.
