Solomon's Ashes (B-Side)

NEEDTOBREATHE

Oh I've got to say you made Solomon's Ashes
Dance from the grave with your beauty and grace
Oh i've got to say I am constantly shaking
Like waves from the sea I am moved by your face
Oh i've got to sayDon't take for granted what you've got, honey, rock honey
You are the heiress to my throne
Strong enough to be a game slayer, please baby
Don't leave me standing here aloneOh i've got to say i've am constantly shaking
Like waves from the sea I am moved by your face
Oh I've got to say you made Solomon's Ashes
Dance from the grave with your beauty and grace
Oh i've got to sayI can't stop what I played for it, prayed for it
I am aware of what I know
You're like the secret never told, darling, oh darling
You shake the ground i'm standing onOh i've got to say i've am constantly shaking
Like waves from the sea I am moved by your face
Oh I've got to say you made Solomon's Ashes
Dance from the grave with your beauty and grace
Oh i've got to sayOh i've got to say I am constantly shaking
Like waves from the sea I am moved by your face
Oh I've got to say you made Solomon's Ashes
Dance from the grave with your beauty and grace
Oh i've got to say
