

Weightless

Liz Longley

you can have the couch, the lamp, the diamond ring the books on the shelf, the dishes in the sink take take take take take take everything take take take take take when you cleared the walls, and emptied out the drawers when you filled your pockets with all you claim is yours take take take take it with you right out the front door take take take take take take I wanna be weightless onto of the world
I wanna be weightless, don't want to be anybody's lover girl
I'm gonna be weightless, I'm cutting the strings
I'm gonna be weightless you can have the memories they only bring me down you can have the words that should've never left your mouth take take take take that dark, heavy cloud
take take take take take take I wanna be weightless onto of the world
I wanna be weightless, don't want to be anybody's lover girl
I'm gonna be weightless, I'm cutting the strings
I'm gonna be weightless I'm gonna be way up high, beyond your gravity way up high where you can't get to me way up high, beyond your gravity way, way up
way, way up
way, way up I'm gonna be weightless onto of the world
I'm gonna be weightless, don't want to be anybody's lover girl
I'm gonna be weightless, I'm cutting the strings
I'm gonna be weightless I'm gonna be weightless onto of the world
I'm gonna be weightless, don't want to be anybody's lover girl
I'm gonna be weightless, I'm cutting the strings
I'm gonna be weightless I'm gonna be way up high, beyond your gravity
