

Worlds Away

RED SUN RISING

Worlds away I feel it raining
Let it trace your face
Through your eyes a storm escaping
Let it drain you Cause we're not here for long
And we're moving too fast
Light is caving in
Where will we be when we crash
We're not here for long
And we're moving too fast I wanna fade away into a dying star, alone
Take me far away to the moments I already know
If I could've ceased the day and the moments I let go
I could've changed the world
But the past is gone, now I walk this path alone The blankest stares always see nothing
My reflection seems so dull
Another life may be beginning
I hope it doesn't leave me Cause we're not here for long
And we're moving too fast
Light is caving in
Where will we be when we crash
We're not here for long
And we're moving too fast I wanna fade away into a dying star, alone
Take me far away to the moments I already know
If I could've ceased the day and the moments I let go
I could've changed the world
But the past is gone, now I walk this path alone
