

Not Gonna Be the One

Olivia Newton-John

Here we are in a room full of broken hearts
Lovers, once but in the end we never really had a chance
You wanted to be free, now that you're lonely
You want me back again But I'm not gonna be the one that you call
Not gonna take the fall for all your indecision
Not gonna put my back to the wall
Not gonna take the fall, for all the pain you've given Me and you, we were a dream that never could come true
In time you'll see that our love was never really meant to be
And if you discover, you need a lover
Someone to break your fall Well, I'm not gonna be the one that you call
Not gonna take the fall for all your indecision
Not gonna put my back to the wall
Not gonna take the fall, for all the pain you've given You wanted to be free, now that you're lonely
You want me after all But I'm not gonna be the one that you call
Not gonna take the fall, for all your indecision
Not gonna put my back to the wall
Not gonna take the fall, for all the pain you've given Not gonna be the one that you call
Not gonna take the fall
Not gonna put my back to the wall
Not gonna take the fall
