Dead Man's Blues

Beige Fish

Goin' through my life, day by day
Wonderin' why and what road it'll take
Sometimes low and sometimes high
Tryin' find a reason to live by

Well I've been seaching far and wide
Over the water beyond the sky
And I've been watching the moon above
Smiling down at me, what's he thinkin' of

What's he thinkin' way up in the sky
Bet he could tell me where my future lies

There ain't no promise, or guarantee
Ain't no wisdom being laid on me
And it's a low down dirty shame
But I gotta find the answer just the same

I ain't foolin' around
Nobody cares
I got a feelin'
Oh I'm going to find it ...
Uhuh
Woo hoo hoo

Well I've been playin' the Dead Man's Blues
And now I need a drink, it's going to be on you
The day of judgement ain't far away
But who'll be the judge, it's hard to say...
Mnnn.. yeah that's hard to say...
