

Rivers in the Sky

Sounds Like an Infection

Everywhere I look
The summer fading away
Everywhere I look
I see the rivers trying to stay
What I feel is nothing
To the earth
Is now dying
And all of these fucking people spaces still are trying to find a way but nothings invincible

And everywhere I look
I see there's nothing to go
Everywhere I look
These humans are tying a rope
Tie it on the earth and fuck it up
To smoke away each and every plant today
And I still feel stuck
