(Watching) Worlds Crumble

Glass Tiger

I can see the look in their eyes
Their fears, cold tears fall to the ground
And their words just echo more lies
More plans, blood stained hands are all aroundLook at me, I'm watching worlds crumble
Look at me, I'm making walls tumble
Take my hand, oh, Lord, it's all I've got
Look at me, I'm watching worlds crumbleWith their hearts they ask me to stay
One life, one voice calling me
I see their eyes and I can't look away
Oh God, why do people have to suffer everyday?Look at me, I'm watching worlds crumble
Look at me, I'm making walls tumble
Take my hand, oh, Lord, it's all I've got
Look at me, I'm watching worlds crumbleI know there's more than just you
You know it's all I can do
I know there's more than just you
You know it's all I can, all I can do
Oh, without youLook at me, I'm watching worlds crumble
Look at me, I'm making walls tumble
Look at me, I'm watching worlds crumble
I know I've got to give it all I gotLook at me, I'm watching worlds crumble
Look at me, I'm making walls tumble
I've got to give it all I got
(Got to give it all)
Take my hand, oh, Lord, it's all I've got (Take my hand, oh, it's all I've I got)Look at me, I'm watching worlds crumble, oh
I know I've got to give it all, got to give it all, oh
(Got to give it all)
Oh Lord, I'm watching worlds crumble, oh
