To Be Loved

Stacy Barthe

You make me remember, who I am
It's easy to forget in a world where no one seems to be sure anymore
I find certainty, when I look into your eyes
The trust in I ever seen, na na na
Let's just say, she got a rhythm with the rhythm with the rhythm
With the dead side of me
And I'm dancing again[Chorus:]
There's nothing more I'd rather be
Than to be loved, loved by you
I don't know nothing, nothing more
Than to be loved, loved by you
That's all I ever knew
That's all I ever know, yeah
That's all I ever knewYou make impossible so possible
With you I feel like I can move mountains
I've searched around, high and low
You just don't come close to anything I've ever known
So let's just say, you got a got a rhythm with the rhythm with the rhythm
With the dead side of me
And I'm dancing again[Chorus x2]
