If It Ain't One Thing (It's You)

Alan Jackson

I guess it's just not my day
The wind blew my morning paper away
Then I cut my toe on a sliver of glass
From the storm door you broke when you left here so fastIf it ain't one thing, it's you
If you've heard that I'm goin' crazy, it's true
The wheels seem to fall off whatever I do
If it ain't one thing, it's youWell, I rented that movie you hate
But that old VCR just chewed up the tape
Then I went to the freezer, thought I'd cook me a steak
All I found was that old piece of our wedding cakeIf it ain't one thing, it's you
If you've heard that I'm goin' crazy, it's true
The wheels seem to fall off whatever I do
If it ain't one thing, it's youBut I never knew that I needed you so
But now that I've lost you, I can't let you goIf it ain't one thing, oh, it's you
If you've heard that I'm goin' crazy, it's true
The wheels seem to fall off whatever I do
If it ain't one thing, it's you
Oh, if it ain't one thing, it's you
